

Pastor Responsibilities

Springfield Community Chapel

The primary responsibilities of the Pastor of Springfield Community Chapel include preaching, teaching, pastoral care, leadership, as well as administrative, outreach, and management duties. Those duties include, but are not necessarily limited to, the following:

1. Provide spiritual leadership and pastoral care to the congregation, fostering a culture of faith, love, and service.
2. Develop and deliver engaging, biblically-based weekly sermons during worship service, as well as on special occasions and events.
3. Plan and lead services collaborating with the worship team, ensuring that services are meaningful and spiritually enriching.
4. Provide pastoral care for members of the congregation, including visiting the sick, counseling those in need, and offering support during times of crisis.
5. Facilitate and encourage spiritual growth and discipleship through the development and implementation of small group ministries, Bible studies, and other educational programs.
6. Work with church leadership and staff to establish and execute a vision and strategic plan for the church's growth and leadership development.
7. Engage and build relationships within the local community, participating in outreach and mission activities, and collaborating with other organizations to address community needs.
8. Oversee the administration and management of church operations, including budgeting and financial planning in partnership with the church membership.
9. Mentor, supervise, and support church staff and volunteers, fostering a positive, collaborative work environment with a focus on leadership development.
10. Perform other pastoral duties, including weddings, funerals, baptisms, and dedications.
11. Agree with and implement the Springfield Community Chapel Constitution.

